

A level Destinations 2017

- 80% of the cohort chose to pursue further study with a university course
- 87% of this cohort gained their first choice of establishment
- 96% of this cohort gained their first or second choice of establishment
- 20% entered Russell Group Universities (The average for Yorkshire is 10%)
- 10% of the remaining cohort have deferred their entry to University and have chosen to pursue a gap year with many travelling overseas, whilst others are gaining additional work experience or have taken employment in order to save funds for the following year.
- Of the remaining 10% of the cohort:
 - 5% have started apprenticeships
 - 4% have moved into employment
 - 1% has joined the Armed Forces
- The number of apprenticeships has increased with some students taking up positions with local firms, whilst others have started apprenticeships with large global firms such as Rolls Royce and Airbus.