Dear Parent or Carer,

RE: English revision sessions

We are inviting your child to attend English revision sessions twice weekly during form times on Tuesday and Wednesday. The bespoke lessons have been designed to add extra support to students who are aiming for higher grades in English and will cover both reading and writing strategies.

The sessions will begin on Tuesday 7 March and run until May half term. Your child should go straight to E1 at the start of form time to be registered and to begin the first session.

If you have any questions, please contact me via office@driffieldschool.org.uk.

Yours faithfully,
