Dear Parent or Carer,

RE: Options

Over the last week, your child should have received confirmation of their options via their form tutors.

If any students are unsure about their choices in September, there may still be the opportunity to change these in September. This will however be dependent on availability and if it fits with their other option subjects.

If you do have any queries in relation to options, please contact the school at options@driffieldschool.org.uk. I will be in school on A level and GCSE results weeks in August and will be able to respond to these queries.

I hope you all have a lovely summer break and we looked forward to seeing you in September.

With best wishes,
