Dear Student,

RE: Sixth Form Patroller Opportunities (£11.59 per hour)

We are starting to plan for September, and we do employ Sixth Form students, often referred to as 'yellow coats' by students, to work with our staff supervising students at lunchtime in both canteen areas and in the outdoor areas of the school. This is a good way to earn extra money as the school's rate is almost double the national minimum wage normally paid by local businesses (£6.40 per hour), as well as being useful work experience which you can share with future employers or prospective universities and colleges.

I hope you will give consideration to applying for this opportunity and have attached an expression of interest form, together with a job description and person specification. If you are interested, please e-mail a completed expression of interest form to hr@driffieldschool.org.uk or hand it to the school's reception who will pass it to our HR team. The deadline is no later than 9 am on Thursday 20 June.

If you have any queries regarding this role, please do not hesitate to contact either myself at Darren.andrews@driffieldschool.org.uk or the school's HR team at hr@driffieldschool.org.uk.

With best wishes,

Mr D Andrews
Head of Sixth Form
